PROCLAMATION
WAUKESHA PARADE MEMORIAL SPONSOR
CITIZENS BANK

WHEREAS, On November 21, 2021, during the annual Waukesha Christmas Parade, tragedy struck when a vehicle drove through the parade route, resulting in the loss of six lives, causing physical injuries to nearly seventy individuals, and leaving countless others with mental and emotional injuries from what they witnessed; and

WHEREAS, One of the victims, Jane Kulich, was an employee at Citizens Bank; and

WHEREAS, the City of Waukesha, in response to the tragedy, rallied together in an unprecedented show of solidarity, resilience, and compassion, exemplifying the true spirit of “Waukesha Strong”, and

WHEREAS, amidst the pain, the community has united to heal and remember, with the creation of permanent memorials to honor the lives lost and those forever impacted by this tragic event; and

WHEREAS, Citizens Bank has graciously stepped forward with a $50,000 donation in honor of Jane Kulich to the City of Waukesha Parade Memorial Fund.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Shawn N. Reilly, Mayor of the City of Waukesha, do hereby acknowledge the compassionate and unwavering support extended by Citizens Bank and pledge to stand together to ensure the City of Waukesha Parade Memorials stand as beacons of hope, resilience, and enduring remembrance, honoring the lives lost and the strength of our community.

Signed this 7th day of November 2023
