Memo and Ordinance-6.115

Brandon Schwenn, P.E., presented this item. The recommended change adds language stating if we don't get written permission to allow access to the private property, the City will charge back the work to the owner.
City Attorney Brian Running, stated that in the past when it was necessary to get rights to do work on private property, condemnation would have been the avenue. Recent court actions states local governments cannot use emanate domain for sidewalks. The ordinal change now is hoping people will be helpful. If there is a change in Madison then emanate domain will be the final solution.

A motion was made by Vice Chair Steve Kassens, seconded by Member Kevin Reilly, that the draft Sidewalk Ordinance change (6.115) regarding the cost of construction and replacement of sidewalks be recommended for approval. The motion carried by the following vote:

Aye: 4 - Steve Kassens, Chad O'Donnell, Kevin Reilly and Eric E. Payne
