Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Customer and employee parking must be signed and left available for customers and employees respectively, not used for inventory storage. At least enough employee spaces must be available for all employees in the work shift with the largest number of employees. All parking spaces in front of the building must be striped for angle parking. Lot striping must be complete before business operations can begin. J.P. Automation will occupy only the identified portions of the building and property. If, in the future, the business expands to occupy a larger area, a new Conditional Use Permit will be required.
