

Rose Lange- Artist/teacher

Rose Lange is a professional artist and educator living, teaching and creating in her hometown, of Waukesha, Wisconsin.

Rose earned a BA in Art Education from the University of Wisconsin - Madison in 1987 and has added continuing education classes at several Wisconsin institutions of higher learning since then. While a student at UW Madison, Rose won a Department scholarship as the Outstanding Student in Art Education and "Best of Show" in the student sculpture show.

Rose has been teaching art for over 30 years to students ranging from kindergarten through adult in Wisconsin and Illinois and is currently teaching art classes to 1st -8th graders at Waukesha Catholic. In 2014 Rose was one of 100 teachers in Wisconsin to be awarded the Herb Kohl Fellowship for Excellence in Teaching.

Rose has held art workshops in her private studio and has also offered a variety of summer art classes locally.

Rose is currently working with mixed media, creating whimsical mosaics, and figurative sculptures using up-cycled chip bags, sells and exhibits her work at the Almont gallery in Waukesha, and is an active member of the Waukesha West End Artists Association.