Subject: Review and act on the B-20 Software Usage Policy

Details:
The last revision to the B-20 Policy was in 2010. A lot has changed since this 11 page policy was last reviewed, and as can be expected there are a lot of irrelevant references. Additionally, there is no need for this policy to be 11 pages. The revised edition of the software usage policy has been organized and streamlined down to less than two pages.
