Pick n Save - Expansion of Premise - Appearance by Brianna Cotton, Mega Marts, LLC. They are expanding their ClickList, online ordering option. Customers can go online to shop and enter their credit card info. They then go to the store and park in designated spots to pick up their order. When orders include alcohol, the shopper will be over 18 and have a bartender license; the order will be marked for alcohol. When the customer arrives a shopper over 18 with bartender license will retrieve the order that has already been put through a register with the order "suspended". The customer will approve the order and must show an ID; the shopper goes into the store and enters the date of birth and completes the sale. All purchases of alcohol require a date of birth to be entered into the register. Pick 'n Save is using this option at 3 locations in the state with multiple other stores pending.

Ald. Jankowski questioned if this went against the requirement that liquor be sold at a separate checkout. Ald. Perry said he has been told the intent of that restriction was related to theft. He believes this is an innovative way to shop; he supports this application.

Ald. Manion for the Police Department's opinion; Lt. Hendricks recommended that surveillance cameras be placed in the outdoor pick up area. Dep. Chief Angle has reviewed and approved both Expansion of Premise applications on the agenda this evening.
