

9-19-2018

Porta Painting, Storage Building

The owner of the property at 313 Travis Lane is proposing to build an unheated storage building on the western side of their property located at 313 Travis Lane. The owner of the property is Ash Schwiesow Properties, LLC. The business located here is Porta Painting, Inc. This Building would be used to store equipment and is not the primary building on this site. This building is the 3rd building on this property and will not require any additional parking stalls.