5. Review & Act On

ID#18-0338 Amendment of Municipal Code Chapter 29, Sewer Use and Wastewater Treatment

Jeff Harenda and Tim Young from the Clean Water Plant appeared. They have completed a major update of ch. 29 that they have worked on for several years. Earlier this month the DNR approved the proposed changes. Tim says the changes strengthen the ordinance. The ordinance was restructured to allow users to find information easily. The amendment involved several departments.

A motion was made by Chairperson Johnson, seconded by Manion, to approve the proposed amendments to Ch. 29 of the Municipal Code. The motion carried by the following vote:

Aye: 5 - Perry, Manion, Johnson, Rodriguez and Wells

6. Communications

Ald. Johnson asked the Police Department about obtaining a report for most recent compliance checks that were done last fall. Habanek will bring this to the next meeting.

Ald. Rodriguez requested that extension of premise applications be copied for each committee member to review at the meeting.
