

Tree Characteristics of the Urban Forest

The urban forest of Waukesha 2026 has 27,246 trees with a tree cover of 28,171.7 percent. The three most common species are Norway maple (26.1 percent), Honeylocust (10.5 percent), and Littleleaf linden (7.0 percent).

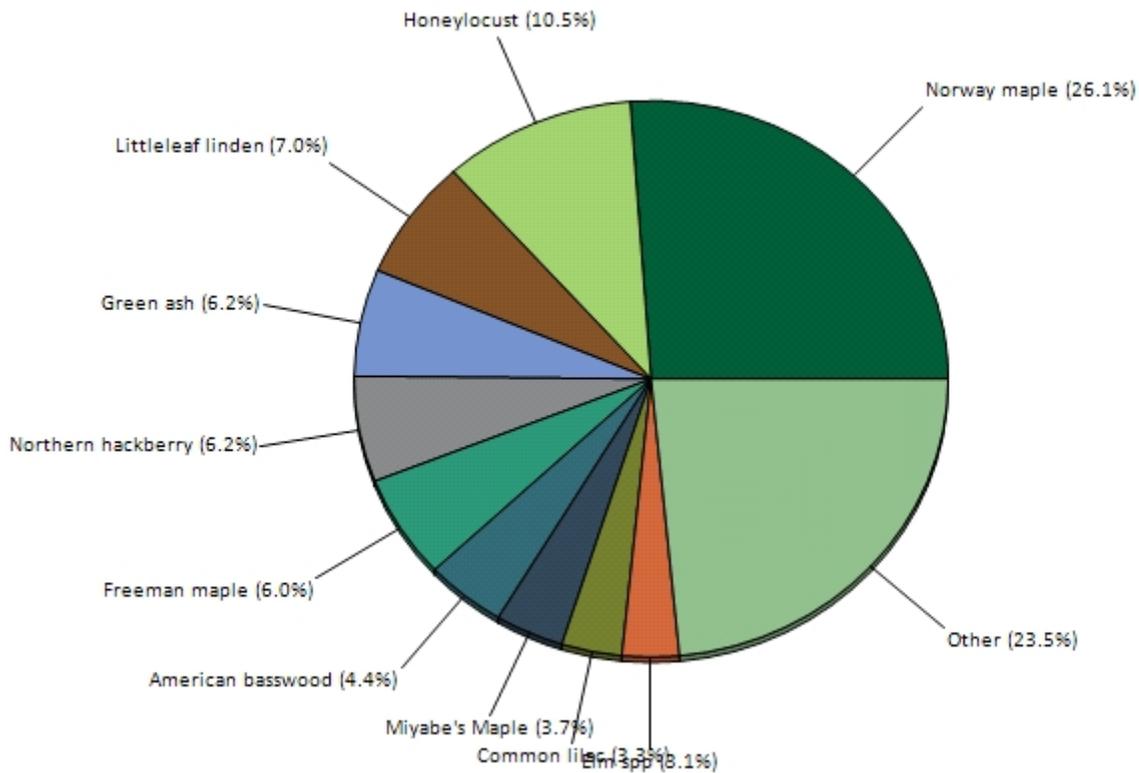

Figure 1. Tree species composition in Waukesha 2026

The overall tree density in Waukesha 2026 is 27,245.1 trees/acre (see Appendix III for comparable values from other cities).