Subject: Waukesha JanBoree Letter of Agreement with Waukesha County.

Details:
The City of Waukesha, Parks Recreation & Forestry Dept.(WPRF) will be celebrating the 33rd Annual Waukesha JanBoree, January 26, 27, 28, 2018. More than 35 events are offered throughout the community with most offered free of charge. Many community partners work in collaboration with WPRF to ensure a successful event and offer partner activities. Waukesha County is a Major Partner of the Waukesha JanBoree and WPRF, offering a minimum of five events each JanBoree weekend including a new event each year and free admission to County Park facilities.

Options & Alternatives:
Waukesha County is a unique partner offering a variety of activities in facilities that could not be replaced or duplicated by a single community provider. While alternative partners could be sought out, they would not present the same experience for citizens.

Financial Remarks:
The agreement with Waukesha County Parks does not have a direct financial impact. All Waukesha County JanBoree events are held at Waukesha County's expense.

Executive Recommendation:
Staff recommends the Parks, Recreation & Forestry Board recommend the Mayor enter into the JanBoree Letter of Agreement with Waukesha County.

Committee Recommendation:
The Waukesha Parks, Recreation & Forestry Board to consider the JanBoree Letter of Agreement at the Monday, November 20, 2017 meeting.
