Laughing out loud at the library

Levi Rausch introduces himself to his fellow improvisation performers in a "zombie" voice. The Waukesha Public Library held the final LOL class in improvisational comedy and theatre games Monday.

Kaiyah Whitehead, left, and her sister Ellie are the two statues who captured the "museum curator" Kelli Cramer. Cramer, a library assistant, taught a four-week course on improvisation at the Waukesha Public Library.

Tabitha Smart, bottom, Caledon Patt, center, and Will Starr played "Booga Booga" during the class.

We think it was fun. The teacher was nice and we liked all the activities that we did.

Quotes from my children. for "LOL."

Kelly is a great instructor. She is energetic & positive & supportive & and encouraging of all the children.

Thanks for doing this, & These nights helped build my kids confidence.

My daughter is in Rhythm and Rhymes on Thurs. We have had many teachers but Miss Kelly is by far the most engaging. It would be great to have her teach the class more often. She just has a way to keep all kids engaged. She knows the children by name and seems to care for them too. She's great, please schedule her to teach more often.

Sincerely,
a caring mom

Waukesha library hosting program on Pabst Mansion

WAUKESHA — The Waukesha Public Library, 321 Wisconsin Ave., will host a program on the Pabst Mansion at 6:30 p.m. Thursday.

The program will present the world of Captain Frederick Pabst, focusing on his family, his beer, and the Pabst Mansion itself.

The virtual tour will be led by Pabst Mansion Docent Dave Fehlauer, and includes rarely seen images and information. Questions? Call 262-524-3682 or visit waukeshapubliclibrary.org.

'RBG' documentary to be shown in Waukesha

WAUKESHA — The Waukesha Public Library, 321 Wisconsin Ave., will host a screening of the documentary "RBG" at 10 a.m. March 13.

The film explores the unique and unknown personal journey of U.S. Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsberg's rise to the nation's highest court.

An informal discussion will follow, with coffee and doughnuts provided by Friends of Waukesha Public Library. Questions? Call 262-524-3682 or visit waukeshapubliclibrary.org.

Nissen Staffing Continuum wins award

WAUKESHA — Nissen Staffing Continuum, a staffing agency based in Waukesha, announced it has won the ClearlyRated's Best of Staffing Client Award for providing superior service to its clients.

Presented in partnership with CareerBuilder, ClearlyRated's Best of Staffing Client Award winners have been proven to be industry leaders in service quality based entirely on ratings provided by their clients. On average, clients of winning agencies are 2.2 more likely to be completely satisfied with the services provided compared to those working with non-winning agencies.

"To be recognized as a Best of Staffing provider by those we serve, is regarded by us as the highest compliment possible. To engage an independent third party to survey our clients that rate us a 9 or 10 is flattering and speaks loudly and clearly to the service and quality of talent we provide. While we will take time to celebrate this honor, we will not lose our focus in pursuit of our fourth consecutive Best in Staffing Award for 2020," said Nissen Staffing Continuum's President and CEO Scott Nissen.
