6. Business Items

ID#23-5520 Update on Fundraising Efforts

City staff provided an update on fundraising efforts. The Parade Memorial Fund has received donations from 340 donors representing 33 states and Canada. The current total in the fund is $250,000. The projects for the Main Street Memorial and Grede Park Memorial are on track. Commission members were encouraged to continue their fundraising efforts to help reach the rest of the goal.

ID#23-5521 Review and Approval of Waukesha Strong Tile Project

Carmen De La Paz presented the concept of a Waukesha Strong Tile project where community members would have the opportunity to customize 6'x6' clay tiles that would be installed in a wall at the Greded Park Memorial. The cost to complete a tile would be $25. The tiles could be customized at three community events in 2023-2024. In addition, groups could sign up for times to customize clay tiles as long as at least 35 tiles were purchased in advance.

A motion was made by Ald. Moltzan, seconded by Ald. Halvensleben to approve the Waukesha Strong Community Tile Project

Aye: 12 - Gerald Couri, Elizabeth Moltzan, Sarah Wehmeier- Aparicio, Lori Lochen, Dan Taylor, Sandra Feller, Sheri Sparks, Taylor Kulich, Alan Johnson, Jim Haakenson, Alicia Halvensleben and Sonia Schneider

Absent: 1 - Tama'ra Rosentreter

ID#23-5522 Update on Parade Memorial Design Process

City staff provided an update on the design process with Thrive Architects. The Main Street memorial project is on track for construction/installation in the spring/summer and a dedication on November 21, 2023.

7. Discussion on next meeting date and time

It was discussed that City staff are now in the design phase with Thrive Architects and there are not any pressing decisions for the Commission to make right now. The Commission will convene again in a few months when needed.

8. Adjournment

Motion by Ald. Moltzan, seconded by Ald. Halvensleben to adjourn the meeting.
