Attorneys office staff,

I was requested to get this into writing so it can be reviewed. Assuming it is not economical to replace the floor and do all the required mechanical work to fix my vehicle.

I am just looking for every bit of fair market value for the Dodge Journey. The vehicle is in great mechanical condition with reworks on both the transmission and on the engine.

I estimate this value to be $6,200 using the Greater Milwaukee and Lake Country used car market.

Best regards,
Tyler Paddock
