WAUKESHA COMES ALIVE WITH WINTER MAGIC AT THE ANNUAL JANBOREE CELEBRATION DESPITE WEATHER CHALLENGES

By Noah Harper

Published on January 25, 2026

Waukesha JanBoree, presented by Generac, takes place Saturday, January 24, with a full day of space-themed winter fun for all ages.

Activities run throughout the day at locations across the city, according to the City of Waukesha's Facebook post.

Families can enjoy events like Out of This World Family Fun, Your Mars Vacation, Make History, Aerospace & Aviation, and the CBS 58 Solar Force Weather Experiment.

Indoor activities also include a Penguin Egg Hunt, JanBoree Art, and a Galaxy of Crafts at the Waukesha Public Library and Schuetze Rec Center, as reported by the City of Waukesha.

Please note that the Ice Sculpting Competition will be rescheduled, and several outdoor events have been canceled. For full details and updates, visit the JanBoree website at <https://janboree.org/>.
